Revised January 2025

Newcomers are welcome at all meetings, although some meetings specifically focus on providing information for the newcomer. Some meetings focus on other areas of interest, such as parents of alcoholic children, children of alcoholic parents or study of the 12 Steps. Alateen meetings are only open to teens aged 10-19 and group sponsors, unless the teens have voted to open the meeting to others. For more information about Alateens, please email the group coordinator at hobbs.alateen@gmail.com.

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference.

Serenity Prayer

The most difficult part of joining Al-Anon and Alateen is finding the courage to walk into the first meeting. The welcome we each received in our first meeting has given us the willingness to return. Hearing from others who have been where we are gives us hope. Discovering that each of us is accepted unconditionally, no matter what problems we have, is a relief. Being a part of a recovery process gives us strength.

Some groups meet once a week and others meet more often. There are a few groups that have meetings every day, and sometimes several meetings per day. Some groups have 30 or more attendees and some groups have three or four regular members. Some groups tend to have a broad mixture of people, with a variety of relationships to alcoholics and drug abusers, of various generations, etc., while some groups tend to be people in very similar circumstances.

If you are new to Al-Anon, we urge you to try several groups, if at all possible. You may identify with some groups more than others.

Al-Anon Declaration Let it Begin with Me

When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, let the hand of Al-Anon and Alateen always be there.

And Let it Begin with Me.

The Suggested Preamble to the Twelve Steps

The Al-Anon Family Groups are a fellowship of relatives and friends of alcoholics who share their experience, strength and hope in order to solve their common problems. We believe alcoholism is a family illness and that changed attitudes can aid our recovery.

Al-Anon is not allied with any sect, denomination, political entity, organization or institution; does not engage in any controversy; neither endorses nor opposes any cause. There are no dues for membership. Al-Anon is self-supporting through its own voluntary contributions. Al-Anon has but one purpose: to help families of alcoholics. We do this by practicing the Twelve Steps ourselves, by welcoming and giving comfort to the families of alcoholics and by giving understanding and encouragement to the alcoholic.

Al-Anon is a fellowship of people who have been affected by the alcohol or other substance abuse of a loved one. We meet regularly in small groups to absorb the strength and hope of others who have lived with an addicted person. We learn from the experience of others who have lived in similar situations.

Alateen meetings are the same as Al-Anon meetings except that Alateen is restricted to people under age 20 who live, or have lived, with someone who abuses alcohol or drugs. Alateen meetings include one or two Al-Anon sponsors.

If you are living with a person with an alcohol or drug problem, or if in the past you have lived with an alcohol abuser, please try some of our meetings. We have survived the same problems you are experiencing. If you know someone who is living with an alcoholic or drug abuser, or whose life has been affected by substance abuse, please urge him or her to try an Al-Anon meeting (or an Alateen meeting if this person is young).
